

Hello,

As I write this quarter’s Chamber Chatter we find ourselves in a totally different world than in January when the first issue came out. Sheltering in place is now our daily life with all the choices that come with that. Wondering about masks or no masks? Grocery shopping on line or visit the store? How often to pick up mail? How to stay connected to friends and family? How to get fresh air and exercise? How to tell friends no? Those who don’t seem to be as concerned about sheltering in place.

I would like to give a special thanks to members of our community who are making a difference in our lives during this pandemic:

- John Thomas of New Covenant Church for the weekly food bank distributions
- Kimi and Rob Brunham for keeping the Rusty Porthole open for takeout food.
- Raj and Andy Sarkaria for keeping Delta Sports Bar open for takeout food.
- Joni and Page for keeping Tugs Bar open for takeout food.
- La Villa Restaurant to reopening April 7th.
- Raj Sarkaria for keeping Gateway Market open
- Raj & Jesse Singh for keeping Bethel Market open

All our local volunteers who are helping their neighbors with everything from finding and delivering groceries, to giving encouragement and support.

A special shout out goes to Dan and Jeff (and their team members) at our Bethel Island Post Office for their help in insuring that our mail gets delivered on time.

There are a lot of people to thank during this time. The medical responders have to be first on the list, followed by those working for grocery stores, pharmacies, hardware stores, volunteer delivery people, police, sheriff, and fire departments. And I know I am leaving many others out. I think it is our duty to be as courteous and polite as possible when we interact with these wonderfully overworked people. For us, there isn’t much to be in a hurry for, so let’s slow down and take the time to be verbally grateful to those who are helping us. Also, with each other as we interact, whether that be driving, navigating the grocery aisles, or seeing others at the post office. Let’s be kind and sharing.

I am confident that we will get through this. It is in our nature, as Americans to persevere and overcome adversity. So, let’s keep our spirits up, continue to help each other, and get through this difficult time in our lives.

Delta Coves

Delta Coves is spending March and April sheltering-in-place with the rest of Contra Costa County. Our residents are enjoying the peace and beauty of our lagoon, the wildlife, and the Delta. We've seen our residents fishing, row boating, biking, and walking along our trails.

Our model home park may be closed but our builders are still selling! The Community Sales Representatives for Davidson Collection and Blue Mountain Communities are scheduling appointments and virtual tours of their models. Each builder has a selection of move-in-ready homes available to view on our website deltacoves.com. Or, we welcome future residents to call our Community Sales Representatives directly.

Davidson Collection: Tod Kellogg can be reached at
